Leaving a Lasting Legacy

— 1 Chronicles 28–29 (2 Samuel 23:1–7; 1 Kings 2:1–12)

Part 15 in a Sermon Series on the Life of David

A lasting legacy may leave little or no impact on the world, but it will leave a deep and transformative impact on people's lives.

- 1. Focus less on who you are and more on Who your God is (1 Chronicles 28:9, 29:10–12)
- 2. Focus less on pouring into everyone and more on pouring into someone
(1 Chronicles 28:8–10)
- 3. Focus less on doing what you want and more on doing what God says
(1 Chronicles 28:8; 1 Kings 2:2–3)
- 4. Focus less on what God can give you and more on what you can give God
(1 Chronicles 29:13–17)
- 5. Focus less on what you have gotten and more on what you have given
(1 Chronicles 29:3–9)

6. Focus less on what you have done and more on what others will do

(1 Chronicles 28:10, 19–20; 29:18–20)

Are you leaving a lasting legacy in the lives of others?
